

I am a listener to satellite radio because satellite radio allows me to "program" the content that I desire when I desire it. This includes local weather and when traveling local traffic. I pay for this privilege and it is very important to me that I continue to receive the content that I desire on demand.

Thank you,
Tom Bolles